

POST COMMUNION TALKS BRYAN KEMPER

Director of Youth Outreach for Priests For Life
SOCIAL JUSTICE BEGINS IN THE WOMB

From Participants in Bryan's Presentations:

"His presentation was amazing. I would love to hear him again!"

"Awesome! He should come back more often!"

Bryan Kemper is the founder and president of Stand True Pro-Life Outreach, one of the many ministries of Priests For Life and a Christ-centered pro-life outreach determined to awaken the youth of this country to live and share the Gospel of Life.

Bryan was raised in a broken home and was pulled out of Catholic School and teachings as a young boy, raised with no faith at all. This led him to a life of crime and drugs. In his talks, Bryan shares his radical conversion from drug addict to Christian and pro-life activist and ultimately the final step in his journey the fullness of the truth, coming home to the Catholic Church.

Bryan has stood on many stages and shared his testimony with a variety of audiences both here in the States and internationally. A passionate and compelling orator, he has spoken at high schools and Universities around the world, including Harvard, Princeton, Notre Dame, Queens University in Northern Ireland, Cardiff University in Wales and many more. He has taken the pro-life message around the world to countries like Ireland, Australia, Scotland, Austria and many more. In the past, he was a regular guest on the television show Politically Incorrect with Bill Maher and co-hosted his own call-in cable show in Portland, Oregon. Bryan has been featured on MTV, radio shows, newspapers, and magazines including the cover of the New York Times and a six-page layout in Swing Generation. He has also been featured in three documentary movies.

Aside from his speaking, Bryan is also an author. Bryan's first book, "Social Justice Begins in the Womb" was released in January of 2010 by Clay Bridges Publishing. His articles have appeared in many magazines and pro-life publications. He also used to be somewhat of a beat poet in a group called Poetic Justice. His poems and songs are mostly centered on the issue of pro-life and, like everything else he does, full of passion.

Bryan Kemper has spent years reaching out to youth and encouraging this generation to get involved, and now he continues that outreach with Stand True, the Youth Outreach of Priests for Life and Gospel of Life Ministries. Stand True believes the only way to stop abortion is to call out to Jesus and share His love with the nation. It challenges young people, "Will you stand?" Bryan has certainly chosen to, and he can only hope and pray that others will too.
