Rachel's Vineyard: New Product

Duelo Prohibido: El Dolor No Expresado Del Aborto
By Dr. Theresa Burke and Dr. David C. Reardon

We're happy to announce the Spanish Translation of Dr. Theresa Burke's book, Forbidden Grief. To order the Spanish version, Duelo Prohibido: El Dolor No Expresado Del Aborto, please click the following link: http://www.amazon.com/Duelo-Prohibido-Dolor-Expresado-Aborto/dp/B00R50FHGU/ref=sr_1_11?s=books&ie=UTF8&qid=1431972971&sr=1-11

Durante más de 30 años, en los Estados Unidos se ha mantenido un debate abierto sobre el aborto. En ese período de tiempo, más de 30 millones de mujeres han abortado al menos una vez en su vida. Mientras la batalla política continúa, poco se ha hecho por tratar las necesidades emocionales de aquellas personas que luchan contra sentimientos de dolor, vergüenza, de sentirse juzgados por los demás...por citar algunos. Por el contrario, los tabúes sociales ahogan la expresión de los sentimientos relacionados con el aborto. Las mujeres se sienten aisladas y se bloquea su recuperación. Duelo Prohibido es un repaso fiel e impactante de las experiencias de la Dra. Theresa Burke, terapeuta de cientos de mujeres con secuelas emocionales provocadas por abortos. La Dra. Burke expone los obstáculos en el camino hacia la recuperación tras el aborto, repasa los distintos y profundos problemas de adaptación del posaborto e ilustra cómo podemos crear una sociedad más comprensiva y saludable en la que las mujeres no tengan que ocultar más su dolor. Ya es hora de escuchar y ayudar.

- Conozca los secretos que las mujeres que han abortado quieren que todo el mundo comprenda pero que sólo revelan a sus terapeutas.

- Entienda cómo las experiencias traumáticas del aborto pueden reexperimentarse a través de nuevos embarazos, abortos provocados múltiples, abuso de sustancias, trastornos alimenticios y ruptura de las relaciones.

- Descubra qué pasos son necesarios para recuperarse y encontrar la alegría tanto de usted como de sus seres queridos. La Dra. Theresa Burke es psicoterapeuta y fundadora de La Viña de Raquel, una organización que ofrece formación y facilita la recuperación tras el aborto, ayudando anualmente a miles de mujeres y parejas en Estados Unidos y en el extranjero. El Dr. David C. Reardon es uno de los investigadores y autores más importantes de Estados Unidos en temas sobre el posaborto, y es funda.

Rachel's Vineyard in the UK

Abortion has been much in the news again with the introduction in Ireland of new laws to allow abortions in certain circumstances. While campaigns focus on persuading women to continue their pregnancies - what is often not mentioned in these debates is what happens to women who do have abortions. Many experience Post Abortion Trauma and the suffering of women is made worse because it is often a secret grief - even those closest to her may not know a woman has gone through an abortion. Society has told her that abortion is a procedure that will solve a problem and allow her to carry on with life as normal. This means the pain and the sense of loss that many women feel is often not acknowledged and rarely spoken of.

Around 200,000 abortions take place each year in the UK resulting in thousands of women in need of support and healing. Thankfully there are a number of organisations who are offering help to women – and men – who have been affected by an abortion. Among them is a movement called Rachel's Vineyard. This ministry was founded by Dr Theresa Burke in the USA in 1984. She opened a centre for post abortion healing that offered counselling to women grieving the loss of an aborted child. She adapted this to a weekend retreat format. Word about these powerful retreats spread and people from across the US came to experience the healing process. Now the movement has spread to over 70 countries worldwide including the UK.

A Rachel's Vineyard retreat is a spiritual and emotional healing process. Each retreat is run by a team of trained volunteers that includes a professional counsellor and a priest. In the safety of a loving, non-judgemental group those suffering can find restoration, healing and peace.

"I was very scared and apprehensive about coming to Rachel's Vineyard and having to share my story. It was the best experience of my life....."

"The weekends offer hope to women who may have suffered silently – perhaps for years."

"It was the best weekend of my life. For the first time in 20 years I was able to share my grief, my guilt, my anger. I was able to mourn the loss of my baby."

Dr Theresa Burke urges anyone feeling apprehensive about seeking help to think again: "Rachel's Vineyard is really a gift. If you could imagine coming on the retreat like coming down on Christmas morning to open a present. There's a present just sitting there waiting for you to come and open it. So why wouldn't you come and receive this tremendous gift and blessing that God wants you to have, God wants you to open. And your life will be restored in a way you couldn't believe possible."

Through the retreats God's mercy is encountered and his promises to each one of us of restoration are fulfilled.

Meet Our Staff

We welcomed Katie Burke to the Rachel's Vineyard staff family at the beginning of January as our newest Administrative Assistant!

Tell us a little about yourself.

I'm honored to join the Rachel's Vineyard team! I'm number two of Theresa and Kevin's five wonderful children. For the many of you who know my parents, you can imagine the adventurous, creative, nurturing, and loving household I was blessed to grow up in. For as long as I can remember, our family revolved around music. As a family, we started playing/singing at our parish masses. As our family grew, both in size and in age, some of us began taking an interest in more serious musical studies. Somewhere along the way, we acquired the nickname of the "Von-Burke" family. We spent the majority of our childhood summers in the Poconos; swimming, boating, and playing together. It is still my favorite place to go and to share with my friends and family. I am eternally grateful for the gift of my siblings. God-given, built in best friends, whether we like it or not!

I'm a recent graduate of West Chester University, where I studied Psychology. Prior to Rachel's Vineyard, I've spent my young adult life as a nanny. I love working with kids and was fortunate enough to find an amazing family that I worked with for over five years. In July, I'll be a first time Aunt! My older brother, Kevin, and his wife, Emika, are expecting their first baby.

What do you enjoy doing in your free time?

I'm a lover of all things related to music! I play the mandolin, guitar, ukulele, and I absolutely love to sing. I am fortunate enough to be a part of a great band, Stella Ruze. I also play solo at multiple bars and venues in the Philadelphia area. This May, I adopted a puppy! The little lady has consumed most of my recent free time, which I am more than happy about. Her name is Prudence, a nod to my family's love of the Beatles. I am also an avid baker. I think RV could use a fundraising baking department. I'm thinking "Katie Cakes" or a "Cup-Kates" bakery? All proceeds will, of course, go to Rachel's Vineyard.

What led you to Rachel's Vineyard?

Rachel's Vineyard has always been my home, both literally and figuratively. For many, many years, mom and dad worked out of an office at our house. I think it's embedded in me to be a part of this ministry. I never fully understood the amount of work that went into running RV until I began working here. I've gained so much respect for my parents for balancing this beautiful ministry with the full-time job of raising five children.

What is your job description?

As an administrative assistant, I handle a lot of phone calls, emails, and other correspondences from many Rachel's Vineyard team members and women and men seeking healing. I've been working on updating mom's course offerings packet, as well as assisting in creating her presentations. As the new young-blood in the office, I've enjoyed increasing Rachel's Vineyard's social media presence. It's opened up so many doors for communication and healing.

What is the most rewarding aspect of your job?

Working alongside mom! It's also a lovely perk to have my namesake and Godmother, Aunt Katie to work with. The Executive Assistant, Lairen and I clicked very quickly. I'm so happy to have become friends and coworkers with such a sweet, hilarious girl! She knows the ins and outs of this place and has been an incredible teacher for me. Working with RV itself is rewarding. It's humbling and awe-inspiring to see how many people around the world that RV has reached and helped.

What is the most challenging aspect of your job?

...working alongside mom! I'm kidding of course, but we can sometimes be too much alike for our own good ;)

Any closing thoughts to share with us before you get back to work?

I can't believe how quickly four months have passed. I'm excited to continue to grow and learn all I can here at RV. Hopefully, one day I'll be able to travel with mom and meet all of you lovely people! Until then, I'll be here at my desk, gladly answering your calls and E-mails while happily humming along to the radio!

“A new chapter of your life awaits you. Take courage,
God is calling you towards peace, love, hope, and freedom.”
~ Dr. Theresa Burke

Rachel's Vineyard Begins to Bear Fruit in Central Wisconsin

By Joseph O'Brien
Staff Writer, Catholic Times

STEVENS POINT – Since 1973, the year that made abortion legal, the U.S. has been tearing itself apart in a war to see the ruling overturned. While there have been some important pro-life legal victories, the rhetorical war over the fate of the unborn continues. The pro-abortion side accuses the pro-life movement of ignoring women's rights; the pro-life side asserts the pro-abortion side lacks compassion for the unborn. According to Lisa Sommers, though, there's one group in danger of being marginalized by both sides.

“There is a huge need for people to reach out to post-abortive persons,” she said. “These people are falling through the cracks.”

A member of St. Peter Parish, Stevens Point, Sommers announced that she was opening a Rachel’s Vineyard retreat site for central Wisconsin at the Sacred Heart Convent of the Felician Sisters in Polonia. The program is the only one in the Diocese of La Crosse and will serve most of central and northern Wisconsin.

The program is part of the internationally renowned Rachel’s Vineyard Ministries, headquartered in King of Prussia, Pa. started in 1984 by Catholic psychologist Theresa Burke, Rachel’s Vineyard Ministries, Inc. is the result of her work in post-abortion trauma healing. Growing from 17 retreats in 1998, Rachel’s Vineyard sponsors more than 1000 retreats annually in 49 states and over 70 countries.

A Sore Need

Through her involvement with the pro-life movement, Sommers said she first recognized the need for post-abortive healing ministry.

“When I started looking at this ministry, I didn’t know where I wanted to go with it,” she said “I felt there was a huge gap of misunderstanding, so that millions of women and men who are suffering because of abortion have not had anyone to turn to, no one who understands.”

Pointing to the generally accepted number of 55 million abortions since the Roe v. Wade ruling, Sommers said the U.S. has become what she calls “a post-abortive society.”

“The abortion culture has permeated every aspect of our lives whether we know it or not,” she said. “There are layers and layers of effects that abortion has had on our society and many of them we haven’t even begun to understand.”

Since announcing the opening of the retreat site in 2011, Sommers has helped over 40 men and women who have attended her retreats.

These men and women have convinced her of the great need for the program – especially considering the long list of symptoms that those who suffer from post-abortion syndrome can exhibit.

“Behaviors that people have been engaging in,” she said, “to cope with their grief and guilt include eating disorders, alcohol and drug abuse and addiction, chronic lying, shoplifting, shopping addiction, gambling addiction, financial self-sabotage, suicide attempts, physical self-mutilation, depression, anxiety, borderline personality disorders, sexual addictions, promiscuity, infidelity, divorce, abandonment of their living children, getting into physically violent or sexually abusive relationships, embezzling, and other thefts.”

Healing Retreat

A typical Rachel’s Vineyard retreat takes place over a weekend, from Friday evening to Sunday afternoon, Sommers said. The retreat includes multi-sensory exercises, she said, which include readings from the Gospel that show Christ's healing powers.

"There's a meditation on each exercise and scripture reading," she said. "Each exercise has a reenactment which gives participants a chance to do something that would involve different senses."

There's also a sacramental component, Sommers said, at the core of the retreat, including confession and the Eucharist.

"The most important thing is the sacrament of reconciliation on Saturday evening after the participants have had a chance to do the lion's share of their grief work," she said. "That's the crux of the weekend really – being able to sacramentally reconcile themselves with God. ... Some people confess their abortion hundreds of times to themselves and others, but they never feel forgiven because they're blocking it, and not accepting the forgiveness. The sacrament helps them achieve this forgiveness."

Grief and Memory

The high point of the retreat, Sommers said, occurs on Sunday with Mass and a memorial service for the children who have died in abortions.

"The memorial service is a healthy way to dignify the memory of their child," she said. "It respects the dignity of the life of the child and the parenthood of the person grieving and their right to grieve that child. Even if they participated in the death of that child, they learn that they still have a right to grieve for that child."

Non-Catholics, Sommers said, also experience the retreat's benefits.

"We find the common ground among religions," she said, "and work with a person to help choose the good rather than negative coping methods."

Sommers said that Eucharistic adoration is also a part of the retreat –with the help of enthusiastic volunteers and supporters.

"The response to the program has been phenomenal," she said. "There's been an overwhelming outpouring of community support and people who want to volunteer and get involved in the ministry itself."

"Don't wait for something big to occur. Start where you are, with what you have, and that will always lead you into something greater."

A Father's Day Appeal

Father's Day is a time to express the joy, love, and gratitude for the father's in our lives. However, for a post-abortive Father, it can be a reminder of the pain and loss they have suffered. By donating to Rachel's Vineyard this Father's day, you can help men to redeem their father's heart on a healing weekend retreat.

Rachel's Vineyard Ministries is a non-profit organization. We are able to minister to those affected by abortion through your contributions and prayers.

Message from the Pastoral Director

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This month I will again be present at the semi-annual meeting of the United States Catholic Bishops. At each of these meetings, Priests for Life hosts a bishops' luncheon to update our advisors about the work of Priests for Life and our wider family of ministries, including Rachel's Vineyard. A number of bishops have made an RV retreat, and we are inviting all of them to join us to discuss how we can continue to promote this healing program within the dioceses across the country.

There is an extra motive to do this within the church today, because of the fact that Pope Francis has proclaimed a Jubilee Year of Mercy, to begin this December and last through November, 2016. We are working very hard to develop the resources and talking points linking this Year of Mercy to ministries like Rachel's Vineyard. I will be doing taping in regard to this at EWTN this fall, and already have interviewed some of the top experts in the church regarding Divine Mercy and have discussed with them its relationship to abortion. We will be sharing these interviews with all of you in our Rachel's Vineyard family. Stay tuned for some exciting times, and thank you for all you are doing to promote healing.

Sincerely,

Fr. Frank Pavone

Please join us in praying for, Celia Ryan. She has been diagnosed with advanced lung cancer which has metastasized to her brain. Celia has served as a therapist and team member on Rachel's Vineyard teams in many locations including Washington, DC. She has also taught at many of Leadership conferences and is a beloved friend to many. Lord, please hold Celia in your arms and grant her a miracle of healing in whatever she needs during this difficult journey. If you would like to reach out to Celia you can do so by mail or email:

Please pray for, Joan Bartolomei, member of the Trenton, NJ Rachel's Vineyard Team. In April she was diagnosed with a recurrence of breast cancer in her left breast. Initially a mastectomy was scheduled. A pre op MRI revealed a second mass in her right breast and biopsy confirmed cancer. This led to a PET scan which showed right lung involvement, also confirmed by biopsy. She is also scheduled for a couple more tests to determine if there is cancer elsewhere. The oncologist has enough info to begin a course of hormone therapy treatment shown to be effective with this type of cancer in post menopausal women. She will be monitored closely with meds altered as needed. Chemo is likely in the future when cancer outsmarts the medications, but that could be several months or a few years away. Joan and her husband Tom feel blessed to have a wall of love and prayer. She is in good hands - God's and his instruments at Penn Medicine. Please keep Joan and her family in your prayers.
