

2018 In-Person Early Voting States - Listed Alphabetically

Updated 10-8-18

Dates when states allow all voters to vote in-person before Election Day, no excuse required.

State	Early Voting for General Election
Alabama	Early in-person voting not permitted.
Alaska	Oct. 22 – Nov. 6
Arizona	Oct. 10 – Nov. 2
Arkansas	Oct. 22 – Nov. 5
California	Oct. 9 – Nov. 5
Colorado	Oct. 22 – Nov. 6
Connecticut	Early in-person voting not permitted.
Delaware	Excuse required to vote early.
Florida	Oct. 27 – Nov. 3
Georgia	Oct. 15 – Nov. 5
Hawaii	Oct. 23 – Nov. 3
Idaho	Dates set by individual counties.
Illinois	Sep. 27 – Nov. 5
Indiana	Oct. 10 – Nov. 5
Iowa	Oct. 8 – Nov. 5
Kansas	Dates set by individual counties.
Kentucky	Excuse required to vote early.

Louisiana	Nov. 24 – Dec. 1
Maine	Oct. 6 – Nov. 6
Maryland	Oct. 25 – Nov. 1
Massachusetts	Oct. 22 – Nov. 2
Michigan	Excuse required to vote early.
Minnesota	Sep. 21 – Nov. 5
Mississippi	Excuse required to vote early.
Missouri	Excuse required to vote early.
Montana	Oct. 7 – Nov. 5
Nebraska	Oct. 9 – Nov. 5
Nevada	Oct. 20 – Nov. 2
New Hampshire	Early in-person voting not permitted.
New Jersey	Early in-person voting not permitted.
New Mexico	Oct. 9 – Nov. 6
New York	Early in-person voting not permitted.
North Carolina	Oct. 18 – Nov. 3
North Dakota	Sep. 27 – Nov. 5
Ohio	Oct. 10 – Nov. 6
Oklahoma	Nov. 1 – Nov. 3
Oregon	All voters receive ballots by mail; may be returned in person.
Pennsylvania	Early in-person voting not permitted.
Rhode Island	Early in-person voting not permitted.

South Carolina	Excuse required to vote early.
South Dakota	Sep. 21 – Nov. 5
Tennessee	Oct. 17 – Nov. 1
Texas	Oct. 22 – Nov. 2
Utah	Individual counties decide if/when early voting offered.
Vermont	Sep. 21 – Nov. 5
Virginia	Excuse required to vote early.
Washington	Oct. 19 – Nov. 6
West Virginia	Oct. 24 – Nov. 3
Wisconsin	Dates set by individual cities and towns.
Wyoming	Sep. 21 – Nov. 5