Statement: Our Movement Will Not Be Intimidated

In recent days, the pro-life community and many other Americans were shocked and disgusted at the behavior of Democrat State Representative Brian Sims from the 182nd Legislative District of Pennsylvania as he attempted to shame and intimidate peaceful pro-life people who were praying outside of a Planned Parenthood abortion facility.

As leaders in the pro-life movement we not only condemn his actions, but likewise call upon leaders in the Democratic Party, Planned Parenthood, the abortion lobby, and pro-choice women's rights groups to do the same.

We furthermore declare that we will not be intimidated by such threats or actions, but rather will continue to equip and encourage our movement to come to the places where the killing of children in the womb takes place, and to intervene for the babies, their moms, and their dads!

As we have done for decades, we will come as law-abiding citizens, we will come in peace, we will come in love, we will come with determination to save lives and awaken the conscience of our communities.

We look forward to the day when all of us can exercise our rights as citizens without having to witness the behavior that Rep. Sims demonstrated.

And we likewise look forward to the day when children in the womb will enjoy the same protections as the rest of us.
