BARACK OBAMA	KEY ISSUE	MITT ROMNEY
Obama: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• "With one more vacancy on the Supreme Court, we could be looking at a majority hostile to a women's fundamental right to choose for the first time since Roe v. Wade. The next president may be asked to nominate that Supreme Court Justice. That is what is at stake in this election".</li> </ul>	The Supreme Court One of the President's duties is to nominate Justices to the Supreme Court	Romney: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Mitt Romney states that he wants "a judiciary that will strictly construe the Constitution and refuse to legislate from the bench." He has appointed as co-chairs of his Justice Advisory Committee law professor and former U.S. Ambassador to the Holy See Mary Ann Glendon and former Reagan Supreme Court nominee Judge Robert Bork. The Committee advises Mr. Romney on the Constitution and legal matters.</li> </ul>
Obama: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• As a Senator he co-sponsored S. 1520 that would have allowed the cloning of human embryos for research, but prohibited cloned embryos from being implanted in women for reproduction. He declared his opposition to "the use of cloning for human reproduction," but did not address the creation of human clones for research purposes.</li> </ul>	Human Cloning	Romney: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Vetoed the bill that would have allowed the cloning of human embryos as Governor of Massachusetts.</li> <li>• "Quite simply, America cannot condone or participate in the creation of human life when the sole purpose of its creation is its sure destruction." (from Mitt Romney's campaign website: http://www.mittromney.com/issues/values)</li> </ul>
Obama: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Approved the use of taxpayer funds for embryonic stem cell research in March 2009, ending President George W. Bush's eight-year ban on funding any research that used embryonic stem cell lines created after August 2001.</li> </ul>	Embryonic Stem Cell Research	Romney: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Adult stem cell research and alternative methods to derive pluripotent stem cells, such as altered nuclear transfer and direct reprogramming, are scientific paths that carry much promise and avoid raising ethical concerns. As president, Mitt will focus his energy on laws and policies that promote this kind of research to unlock the medical breakthroughs that our loved ones so desperately need.</li> </ul>
Obama: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• "...at a certain point I've just concluded that for me personally it is important for me to go ahead and affirm that I think same sex couples should be able to get married."</li> <li>• Obama voted against the Federal Marriage Act, which would have defined marriage as between a man and a woman.</li> </ul>	Gay Marriage	Romney: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• "...I do not favor marriage between people of the same gender and I do not favor civil unions if they are identical to marriage other than by name. My view is the domestic partnership benefits, hospital visitation rights, and the like are appropriate but that the others are not."</li> </ul>
Obama: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Plans to create a 21st century immigration system by: continuing to fulfill the federal government's responsibility to securing our borders; demanding accountability for businesses that break the law by undermining American workers and exploiting undocumented workers; strengthening our economic competitiveness by creating a legal immigration system that reflects our values and diverse needs; and requiring responsibility from people who are living in the United States illegally.</li> </ul>	Immigration	Romney: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Believes in the rule of law and will fully enforce federal immigration law. As governor, he authorized state police to assist the federal government in immigration enforcement.</li> <li>• Mitt Romney opposes amnesty because he believes that it acts as a magnet encouraging illegal immigration.</li> </ul>
Obama: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Has defunded the District of Columbia Opportunity Scholarship Program, the federal program established in 2004 to provide vouchers allowing low-income children in the nation's capital to go to a public or private school of their parents' choice.</li> </ul>	Education Vouchers	Romney: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Supports the creation of federal vouchers which would allow tax dollars now sent to public schools to help educate poor and disabled children to instead follow the students to the private schools of their parents' choosing.</li> </ul>
