2003 – Partial-Birth Abortion Ban Act

(Republican House; Republican Senate; twice vetoed by Democratic President, but signed into law by Republican President) – Congress first passed this bill in 1995 and then in 1997 and it was vetoed both times by Democrat President Bill Clinton. Congress passed it again in 2003 and Republican President George W. Bush signed the measure into law.

2004 – Unborn Victims of Violence Act

Passed by Congress in 2004 and signed into law by President George W. Bush, the Unborn Victims of Violence Act amended the federal criminal code to include an unborn child at any stage of development as a separate victim when injured or killed as the consequence of an attack on his or her mother.
