

Father Pavone and Executive Director Janet Morana are unceasing in their efforts to tangibly aid postabortive women who often suffer not only physical damage from abortion but lifelong negative emotional, psychological, and spiritual consequences. The Silent No More Awareness Campaign provides a safe place for women who have had abortions to grieve and find peace. – Congressman Chris Smith

Janet: I loved your take on Sarah Palin and why she is hated so much by so many grouchy women. I think you hit the nail just right smack on the head and in the middle with your brief analysis. Janet, you're smart, and I always knew it. And you keep getting smarter. Keep writing good stuff. Love you. God bless you. - Yours for Life, - Joe Scheidler

Dear Janet, On behalf of the Board of Directors of International Life Services, we would like to thank you for your presentation at the Advanced Training Institute. Dear Fr. Pavone and Janet:

The Fourth Annual Walk for Life West Coast has come and gone and I want to thank you both for being here and helping to make it the great success it was. Your presence helped raise national awareness of what is going on out on the West Coast when it comes to the culture of life. Hopefully, we broke the stereotype that says that everyone in the San Francisco Bay Area and on the West Coast is pro-abortion. We showed the nation that nearly 30,000 people can come together peacefully and in the face of huge opposition to say that life is the best and the only choice. We walked for the rights of the pre-born, for women, men and families. On behalf of all the organizations you traveled across the country to support – the San Francisco Archdiocesan Respect Life Program, the Walk for Life West Coast, the Interfaith Committee for Life and Issues4Life Foundation – thank you. Thank you for your tireless support and for your graciousness in going to all the events we planned for you. It was quite a hectic schedule but your energy and commitment never failed. God bless both of you for your tireless work for the unborn. We are proud to include you in our Walk for Life West Coast family. -- Vicki Evans, Respect Life Coordinator, Archdiocese of San Francisco

God's blessings to you! Very happy to you for all the hard work you do for the innocent babies. Love you, Janet

Thank you for always being there for us. God bless you.

Thank you for this program Janet and Kevin. It brought to light a lot of things I have never thought about.

God bless this movement. I am learning so much from your program. - Kevin D

What wonderful news [on your "Just Ask Janet" program] to reach out the Spanish community. Many of us are Catholics but they don't see the light how important is to vote for Prolife Presidents. - Scarlet

Very informative and wonderful discussion! Beautiful images too of the early stages of fetal development. I'm just in awe of God's marvelous work. I'm 7wks and 4 days pregnant and seeing these pictures are just amazing.

Awesome, Awesome, Awesome two great Women [Janet and Alveda] - Pro-life movement. Life wins always. God bless you both

Janet Morana and Alveda King, We thank you from the bottom of our hearts for blessing us with your presence [in Jamaica] and sharing with us your gifts, talents and your precious time. We hope and pray that abortion will not be legalized here in Jamaica. - Fr Richard Ho Lung, MOP

Dear Janet,

Thank you for your recent appearance on my radio show to discuss the U.S. Supreme Court ruling on the Texas abortion law. Your insight helped the listener gain a better understanding about how politics is being given more support than life and how dangerous that is. Your work and message empowers others to step forward to fight for life. - Sincerely, Chris DeBello

Dear and good Janet,

Just a quick email, first email at my desk in 7 days, to thank you profusely for hosting Open Line for me! ... you just did an awesome job! You are such a powerful instrument for truth and it's always great to have a glorious sister in Christ back you up!!

Keep up the great work on behalf of God's unborn and their dear mothers' and fathers'!

God keep you,
Barbara

Great guest in Janet Morana. I hope she will have a permanent slot on the radio -- I like the info on the dangers of abortion pills. Janet is very brave. Thank you very much. God bless you for all the good things you do for our Lord Jesus. He said in the holy scriptures, 'those who are not ashamed of me him will I defend to my father.' God bless you all.- Juanita

Thank you for listening to EWTN Open Line. We agree, Janet was a great guest...and we're looking forward to her next appearance on EWTN Radio. God bless you! Most sincerely in Christ, - Thom Price, Director of Programming, EWTN Global Catholic Radio Network

Dear Janet,

Thanks again for such a great show on “EWTN Open Line—Tuesday.”

We are getting really good feedback.

This grateful listener from Real Presence Radio mentions you and Fr. Frank.

God bless you both and keep at it! Amen. - Elena Rodriguez

Dear Janet,

It was wonderful to have had the opportunity to meet with you and the others here at the Council [for Promoting the New Evangelization] earlier in the week. I’m always inspired to hear of all of the ways that you and all those associated with Priests for Life continue to wage the battle against the culture of death. And we are winning indeed!

Archbishop Fisichella has asked me to extend to you his gratitude ... He asked me to send along his prayerful best wishes.

In the Lord,

Fr. Geno Sylva

Hi Janet:

Thank you so much for a wonderful, beautiful presentation last evening.

The book looks amazing. The depth of the research you undertook was surely a labor of love and I am sure it will be a great resource for many. I know I will use it as a resource.

You were extremely generous with the donations of all the books for the library, professors, students, and to support our March for Life trip.

May God continue to bless you and your staff in your work in spreading the Good News and the truth about abortion and life.

Colette M. Liddy

Director, Media Relations

Caldwell College

.. I was reading some material that was handed out about your book, and I thought of my great work with Priests for Life all these years.

What an outstanding team of people you all are! Father Frank is wonderful, and of course, we love working with Christa, who is terrific.

You are a great and valued friend.

Cheers

Tim Goeglein, VP External Relations, FOTF

Janet,

I am so glad the event worked out well. Thank you for taking the time to come down to DC to brief the staff. [One participant] told me she is "in the middle" on the abortion issue, said that she really felt the briefing was insightful. ... I believe it made an impact.

Thank you again, on behalf of myself and the Senator.

Lauren McCormack
Policy Advisor, Senator Roy Blunt (R-MO)

Dear Janet,

Thank you so much for speaking at our Family Life Services Banquet and participating in the reception, dinner and program. We are most grateful.

It is always to hear you and be re-energized in the pro-life cause. We had over 160 guests and it looks like we surpassed our budget goal by a little bit. In today's economy that has to be the work of the Spirit! We are very blessed by generous donors and supporters.

Thanks to your specific comments our monthly pledge total rose considerably and that will help insure a steady income.

Special thanks for your help with the auction also. Those few items raised over $500 for the Clinic and Center.

You and Teresa will be in my prayers as your EWTN program launches this week.

Thanks again and Blessings on you and your work.

We continue in need of prayer as on Friday an abortion-minded woman was here and we are working with her to take her for an ultrasound.

Al Esper
Event Coordinator

Dear Janet.

I had the privilege to meet you in San Francisco a few years ago when you came to our Archdiocese to promote the Silent No More campaign. I am a pro life representative for the Spanish speaking community in Redwood City California. I am glad that I know about this campaign because it has become a great tool for the education and info for the women in my community. Specially through the videos with all the testimonies. Teenage girls become very impressed and shocked to hear the other side of abortion that they do not hear at school or in their homes. Many who thought that it was ok to have an abortion now see it from a different perspective. What you are doing has the power to change this nation and to shift society towards a direction where women are safe, respected and where they and their babies are loved. God bless you and keep up the good job. - Sincerely, Ezia Barron, Respect life rep.

Dear Janet: Thank you for sharing your article; in my opinion, you're right-on. I've forwarded it to others in the pro-life community and will continue to do so. The attacks on Sarah Palin have been so broad, extreme, and ongoing; yet, she seems to fit the model of what women were told "way back when" they should be able to accomplish. Guess when so many failed, they don't like to see someone succeed who didn't have to sacrifice positive values to do so. Thank you for pointing it out. – Jo Tolck, Human Life Alliance

Janet, Thank you for remembering us and keeping informed. We will be mentioning your article on our life radio show "Con-Chavando" tomorrow. ...Keep up the great. work!!!! Kind regards, Elias Chavando

Janet, I just published this on www.woman.catholicexchange.com. It is in the section called "Subjects of the Queen." Great article and thank you for sharing! Advent blessings, Cheryl

Hello Friends, I just read the newsletter with the Janet Morana article. It made me really think for a few minutes and I think she may be truly hitting the nail on the head concerning the hatred towards Sarah Palin. It made me think of my sister and sister-in-law, both almost 50, making great money, great careers, but no children in their marriages (I don't think either is PA, just never felt ready, both divorced and remarried later) – and nieces and nephews are so important to them & family now. Perhaps Sarah does represent the "American dream for women" and it hits close to home for many women and how their life is not as fulfilled, and the choices they have made which were different. Thanks for the great insight and all the encouragement and work by Priests for Life! Sincerely, Kathy Brown, The Pregnancy Centers of Central Virginia

What a profound and wonderful reflection on the dynamics behind the venom expressed every time Sarah Palin appears in the news or elsewhere. I wonder if there is a reasonable and economically feasible way to develop some empirical data to support that hypothesis!!! God bless you in your efforts to protect the unborn! - Deacon Pete

You hit the nail on the head. This along with family planning, free choice and the ACLU is a plan for the destruction of the U.S. which is the only nation founded on Christian principles. ... survive. - Tom P.

Hi Janet:

I asked Mary K. for your email because I happened to hear you on the air yesterday filling in for Teresa Tomeo. I don't get to listen to her that much, but I happened to tune in yesterday and heard you and I wanted to tell you that you are doing a real good job.

The little gift out of this was that Mary was able to tell me she would be on today and I thought the segment with you and her was very good.

God Bless. Keep up the good work of spreading the good news.

Father Frank and Janet,

I wanted to send you a sincere thank you for your influence on our son Matthew. Here are two pics with you gently pastoring him and our other kids, they all love you so much. Then a picture of Matthew as a teenager at the abortion clinic praying, and finally this past weekend as he was praying with the rest of his seminary class at that same abortion clinic and being harassed by the security guard there who posted a picture of him on Twitter as he was kissing his crucifix and praying the Rosary. Thank you for sowing these seeds!

■ Matt

I enjoyed your program this evening on EWTN it was very interesting to see how someone who had a secular outlook on life can also see the need for a pro-life attitude and saving the lives of unborn babies amen!!! Thank you Jesus for Janet and Father Frank and everyone at Priests For Life for all they do for those of us who enjoy this channel and for all the babies they have saved and will save amen!!! Through the power of the Holy Spirit in Jesus name we pray amen!!! God bless you!!! –

Fr. Frank is a team player! His dedication to life is equaled by his dedication to God. I'm blessed and honored to share the ministry of Silent No More Awareness Campaign with him and Janet Morana. –
Georgette Forney, President, Anglicans for Life

Angelina Steenstra: Hello. I'm Angelina Steenstra, the national coordinator for the Silent No More Awareness Campaign in Canada. I'm so grateful for Father Frank Pavone and Janet Morana and Georgette Forney who started the Silent

No More Awareness Campaign in 2003. I happened to come to their gathering here in Washington in 2004, and was convicted that this campaign had no borders and that I was to bring it back to Canada. So with the support of Father Frank and Janet and Georgette, I became the national coordinator for the Silent No More Awareness Campaign. And every year we've been hosting a gathering in front of our parliament buildings in Canada, gathering men and women who have experienced abortion to share their testimony, and it's been breaking down the walls of silence.

From coast to coast we've been traversing, really, the country for the past 11 years, sharing testimony of the aftereffects of abortion, letting people know that there are healing programs available, educating the public about the spiritual, psychological, emotional, physical side effects of abortion, and ultimately giving men and women an opportunity to share their testimony, to reach out to others, especially those that are hurting through abortion. And all of this work has been really blessed and helped by Priests for Life in the United States, Father Frank

Pavone, Janet Morana, and every year we've been joined by Janet at our March for Life. And what can I tell you? It's been just one incredible journey. So I'm really grateful to Priests for Life in the United States and for the support and help that we've been given through the vision of Silent No More Awareness Campaign, and now through this greater vision of Shockwaves, healing all the various groups of people that have been hurt by abortion. So a heartfelt thank you in gratitude to Father Frank and to Janet.

Dear Supporter of Priests for Life:

I've been given this opportunity to tell you a wonderful story about how Father Pavone, Janet Morana, and the entire PFL staff had a decisive influence on the outcome of 2016 election.

Let me, however, make it clear from the outset: No priest or religious had more impact on the Catholic and pro-life voters than Father Frank Pavone. And no Catholic organization had more impact than Priests for Life. To be perfectly candid, it's not even a close call!

As you know, the primary had several good pro-life candidates, but long before any other pro-life leader made a public statement of trust in Donald Trump's pro-life position, Father Pavone took the lead, because he realized there was only one pro-life candidate who could win the White House. And, yes, there was quite a bit of criticism leveled at Father and Priests for Life.

Having been able to watch this process firsthand, I can tell you it wasn't an easy stance to take, but Father Pavone took it courageously with his characteristic modesty. Both he and Janet Morana were among the first to be placed on the Trump/Pence Catholic Advisory Committee, though all of their outreach effort remained aimed at pro-life voters with a pro-life message.

Since I was in charge of the Catholic Outreach for President George W. Bush in both his national elections, I have some experience of these contentious election campaigns. I know the cost that can be paid, but Father Pavone, his staff, and you PFL supporters remained faithful to the cause in spite of the criticism and, sadly, the attacks. And now that the pro-life candidates have won, those attacks will not abate, but, most likely, will continue and grow louder.

Yet, Priests for Life is now in a unique position to turn its nationwide support into a longterm political force, with a single mission -- to protect the unborn through political participation. Such an effort cannot be partisan and it cannot be founded on any single administration, but presidents come and go, party leadership also changes. What Priests for Life represents does not change, and what we build together cannot be subject to the political climate. It must endure.

I hope you will do whatever you can to help Priests for Life not only to maintain its present, and historic, effectiveness but also support the effort to create a permanent outreach network that can be used to promote the pro-life cause throughout the year and in every election cycle.

As someone who has been in this political arena for over 20 years, I can testify to the fact of how very badly it's needed, and that only Father Pavone and Priests for Life can fill meet that need.

Please continue to help us. With prayers of gratitude,

Deal W. Hudson

Janet, Fr. Frank & Staff, Just a note to let you know that we prayed for all of you at Priests for Life in our Staff meeting today. We so appreciate all that you do to promote a culture of life and pray that God will continue to bless all of your efforts. We are looking forward to seeing you at our conference in April! Yours in life, The Staff of Heartbeat International

10 years ago I tuned in EWTN TV for the first time, and there were you and Janet interviewing an abortion survivor. I was crying while listening to her story, and ever since have given my heart to the pro-life movement and to EWTN. Both have strengthened my faith and my family. I love you and I will always keep you in my prayers. - Sonia, IN

Dear Fr. Frank and Janet: Thank you for your recent appearance on the EWTN LIVE program. I know Father Mitch was pleased to have you join him ... I can appreciate why our viewers are always so pleased when they see your names on the schedule. Your message is always clear and just as importantly, grounded in a real understanding of the need for charity when discussing such an important issue. Thank you too for your participation in, and support of, EWTN throughout the years. I know Mother Angelica has always been grateful. We continue to pray that the Lord will bless you and yours as well as your most important ministry. Sincerely, Chris Harrington, Senior Producer, EWTN LIVE

I am so happy to be able to listen to you and to watch EWTN programmes. Father, your Homilies are excellent and very enlightening and so are the others. What caught my interest was the talk given by Janet [Morana] on contraceptives. The data she has collected only goes to show her hard work and her love and interest for Life. You mentioned that video tapes will be or are available, would Ms. Janet's talk also be possible to get? I heard your suggestions and will speak to the Parish Priest about this. – Tanya, TX

The most helpful things for me are three in particular: your writings and TV programs that lead us step-by-step through the issues to be addressed, the "action" suggestions from yourself and Janet Morana and the people you interview on your programs, and the ways of holiness you model and preach as you celebrate Mass on EWTN. PC, CO

Dear Father Frank Pavone and Mrs. Janet Morana, I would just like to thank all the support given to the seminarian Fernando Paiva during his stay in the US, including his attendance in the Retreat / Conference of August 16 21. I congratulate you for this initiative, which happens to be within the scope of his formation in the Gospel of Life issues, included in his path towards priesthood. My warmest regards, Padre Carlos Rosmaninho, Vice Rector of Seminario Maior de S. Paulo

Dear Fr. Frank and Janet:

I hope you both enjoyed a most blessed weekend and Lord's Day as we celebrated Mother's Day!

I wanted to thank you for the webinar last week on preparing for Mother's Day. It was time well spent for me, and it, in turn, made an impact on a guest at our Sunday Mass. I received the following in an email:

"I wanted to reach out and say thank you. I attended the 9:30 Mass this morning. I was dreading this Mass because my husband and I are two years into primary infertility. Today has been difficult for me, but a bright spot was when Deacon Russ not only wished any moms a Happy Mother's Day, but also made sure those who have been affected by miscarriage or infertility we're also recognized. I expected to cry throughout Mass. I didn't expect it to be because I felt so seen and heard by the Church. I truly, truly appreciate his words. I wish there was more discussion and compassion about this in Church circles. "

I don't believe I used the word "miscarriage," but, as was suggested by Janet, "pregnancy loss. "Obviously, it was a great comfort to this woman.

Thanks again, and keep up the good work! Peace,
Deacon Russ Woodard

Re: The Good Shepherd Seminar. See www.TheGoodShepherdProject.com.

Hello Janet, thank you again for sharing your story last night. I find those gatherings very informative and spiritually uplifting.

We are kicking off our new ministry, LIFE MINISTRY and any information or tips you might have would be appreciated.

I look forward to your input, also we are a team of five right now and we have been circulating the books I've received from you. I thank you.

Would you please send two copies of everything you, Father Frank and Kevin and Theresa have written.

Thank you for all you do, pray for us as we pray for you, Deacon Bob Cunningham

DEAR JANET MORANA and ALL:

Praise for the Book Everything You Need to Know for Teens

Hi Janet,

I just got off the phone with this wonderful lady and she only had nice things to say about your latest book, "Everything You Need to Know About Abortion For Teens". She told me that she read it through in one day and thinks it is Phenomenal and powerful. She has been a long time supporter and big fan of Priests for Life and our mission. - Rosemarie L.

I received Janet's book. I read every page and found it a supreme reading and very knowledgeable. I will take the book to church and give it to a family that has teenagers. - Lawrence

Dear Pro-Life Friends,

When we received the book on abortion by Janet Morana I was eager to buy more of them ..

Thank you, Janet, for that courageous and much needed book . It will surely do much good, not only for young people but also for anyone who has been fed and sadly believes many lies about the evil of abortion.

Our prayers are with you in all the good work you are doing. May God bless you abundantly and give you the strength and courage you need to continue saving our precious babies!

Gratefully in Mary, our Mother, Mother Mary Leo OSC

Thank you for Everything You Need to Know about Abortion for Teens. My granddaughter is going to College in September and I have read and highlighted her copy. After doing the highlighting yesterday I gave her a little grandmotherly advice telling her it isn't easy even for me to calmly, patiently discourse on this subject and I found Janet's book so helpful so clear so down to earth so traditional. We talked for a bit about the subject and my sweet Mary was receptive and thoughtful. ...Bless you for your efforts

Dear Janet,

My long overdue thanks for the kind gift of your book Everything You Need to Know about Abortion: For Teens.

My congratulations to you on its publication. I am certain that your work will do much good to help build a culture of life, especially among the youth...

Praise for the Book Contraception of Grief

"I am very pleased to have received a copy of The Contraception of Grief, a booklet which will educate and counsel many about the hidden effects of abortifacient contraceptives. All of us in the Church are in need of such an education. Many are becoming enlightened about the logical connection between the advent of widespread acceptance of contraception and legalized abortion; yet, many are unaware of the direct attack on life made daily in the silence of the womb by contraceptives such as the Pill. It is my hope that this worthy effort by Janet Morana and Dr. Theresa and Kevin Burke will be part of the great conversion of heart and mind so needed on this topic. As shepherd of the flock of the Diocese of Phoenix, I fully endorse this work."

-- Most Reverend Thomas J. Olmsted, Bishop of Phoenix

I just wanted to write and tell you how much I enjoyed the book and how excited I am to make it one of our new resources. It is so exciting to hear about the ways God is working to help us share with people the truth about the Church's teaching on sexuality. May God bless you for all that you are doing.

-- Kristie Wellman, Coordinator of Youth and Family Outreach, One More Soul

"This book [The Contraception of Grief] will be provided to our Archdiocesan Pro-life Office as a resource for their work."

-- Reverend Robert T. Kickham, Archdiocese of Boston

"Many thanks for the honor of reviewing your most recent booklet, Contraception of Grief. It's truly an outstanding work. One that will not only enlighten married couples but will serve as an eye-opener for those about to become 'two in one flesh.'"

-- Reverend Daniel McCaffrey, Director, Natural Family Planning Outreach

"The Contraception of Grief is excellent and needs to be spread far and wide. The item is most timely and hopefully very many will read it and spread it across the land. Much too little has been said and written about abortifacients, but now we have your document, The Contraception of Grief (The Genesis of Anguish Conceived by Abortifacients and Sterilization). Again, hopefully you will spread this far and wide.

-- Reverend Paul B. Marx, OSB, Founder, Human Life International

"The present work, The Contraception of Grief, is a fascinating analysis of the bitterness caused by that other vehicle of the culture of death, namely, contraception. While the grief it engenders is in a certain sense of another order than the post-abortion grief, the booklet highlights one of the most fundamental evils of chemical contraception: its abortifacient nature. The "contraceptive evangelists" as it calls them know full well that every society which caves into birth control eventually succumbs to abortion and so, I believe that the present authors have given us a new and truly helpful instrument with which to continue our fight."

-- Reverend Thomas J. Euteneuer, President, Human Life International

I just finished writing to Theresa Burke to thank her for her new book, The Contraception of Grief: The Genesis of Anguish Conceived by Abortifacients and Sterilization. We plan to review it in a coming issue of Celebrate Life, and are convinced that such a book is long overdue. And it was while reading what I could find from the internet that I happened upon your article, Abortifacients: The other Forbidden Grief. The article is excellent. ... thank you for writing this touching testimony to the power of Jesus Christ to be all that we are not, especially when we need Him the most. Sincerely yours in the Lord Who IS LIFE

-- Judie Brown American Life League

I am Judy, living in the Philippines for 32 years. I was watching EWTN a couple of nights ago and Fr. Pavone was on with Janet Morana. I heard a little of her testimony and was so interested, that I went to the website which was advertised on the screen. I have just finished reading the information on the Contraception of Grief. I have a meeting with a priest in an hour, that's how powerful this information was!!!

I do enjoy your program. ... Your conversation tonight was very enlightening to me as a woman that is alone and desiring to follow Christ in my life in an ever deeper walk. I am seeking his discernment for this next season of my life. ... Thank you for your ministry.

I am 35 year old catholic male from Uganda.. I was blessed by watching The Catholic View for Women...It was the first time I watched the program and I was so blessed...I caught up with Janet, Teresa and Astrid discussing why women cannot be ordained priests and how they take a leading role in most missions of the church. The discussions blew me away, their analysis and depth inspired me. ..Please forward this email to the three ladies and tell them I was touched and inspired by their program. – Joseph
