The Most ProLife President We’ve Ever Had
By Fr. Frank Pavone, National Director

Article adapted from one originally published at LifeNews.com

Recently I was privileged to be with President Donald Trump and Vice-President Mike Pence as they announced and officially launched their re-election campaign at a rally in Orlando, Florida. With me was one of my fulltime associates here at Priests for Life, Evangelist Alveda King.

At the Amway Center in Orlando, we were present with a capacity crowd of 20,000, and about six times as many people had requested tickets. And just as many of us experience at the March for Life, everyone around us in the crowd was positive, upbeat, smiling, helpful and kind.

Prayer service at Supreme Court in D.C. on Jan. 22 to mark sad remembrance of Roe v. Wade

The 2020 March for Life in Washington, DC will take place on Friday, Jan. 24. In the days just before it, several other pro-life events will be held.

On the actual anniversary of Roe vs. Wade, January 22nd, Priests for Life will gather with other national pro-life leaders for a candlelight vigil in front of the Supreme Court.

The inter-denominational prayer service will begin at 7 p.m. in front of the Courthouse at 1 First St. NE in Washington. The closest Metro stops are at Union Station and Capitol South.

Events that will be coordinated by Priests for Life also include:

Thursday, Jan. 23, 9 – 11 a.m.: Priests for Life will lead an interdenominational prayerful protest at Planned Parenthood’s killing center at 1225 Fourth Street NE.

Also on Jan. 23, Priests for Life will open its exhibit booth at the March for Life Conference.

Friday, Jan. 24, 8:30 – 10:30 a.m. The National Prayer Service will take place at DAR Constitution Hall, 1776 D St., NW (18th and D St). For more information see www.NationalPrayerService.com.
And the crowd reflected the ordinary, hard-working, family-loving, patriotic people of faith who can be found all across this great land.

We were gathered to launch, together with the President and his team, the re-election campaign for 2020.

We were gathered to commit to making the political turnaround that happened in 2016 happen all over again in 2020.

Four years ago, what a Trump Administration might be like was an unknown. The polls and pundits said he would not and could not win – until he won. And now we know what that meant.

His rally recalled the progress that has been made (see PromisesKept.com), including America’s increased respect around the world, the improved trade deals, the record-breaking economic growth and job creation, the historically low rates of unemployment, the improved treatment of veterans, the important improvements to healthcare, the increased strength of the military and of our borders, the transformation of the federal courts (with the addition of approximately 150 new conservative federal judges including two Supreme Court Justices), the re-directing of billions of dollars away from the abortion industry both in America and worldwide, the enhanced protections of conscience and religious freedom, and much more.

Because the Trump Presidency now has a track record, making the political miracle of 2016 happen again in 2020 should be quite doable. Our side is far more united, encouraged, and sure of ourselves and of the path forward.

Within the pro-life movement, even those who were initially against Trump are heard to declare now that he is the most pro-life president we have ever had.

Hence the crowd in Orlando agreed that the new campaign rallying cry would be “Keep America Great!”

The Orlando rally made it clear that this election will not simply be a choice between candidates. We can’t be comparing just individuals. Rather, it’s a choice between two worldviews, between two very different futures for America. The President emphasized this repeatedly in his remarks.

Prior to the public rally, Alveda and I were in a private reception with the President and Vice President during which they both shared remarks as well, and acknowledged and encouraged the work of the pro-life movement. We were able to greet them on behalf of so many with whom we work each day to make America pro-life again. They are aware of the work the pro-life movement does, and are fully committed to do their part to make that work succeed.

Moving forward, then, as they launch the re-election campaign, let’s re-launch our own efforts to educate and mobilize the pro-life vote. (See ProLifeVote.com)

Let’s expose the extremism of the Democrat platform and policies on abortion, especially late-term abortion and even infanticide.

Let’s make sure people in our movement are registered to vote, are aware of the elections taking place in their state, and have the relevant primary and general election dates marked on their calendars.

Let’s join in election prayer efforts (see ElectionPrayer.com) and let’s commit to educate others by urging them to listen to the words of the President directly (see ProLifePresident.com) rather than as filtered by biased media.

Together, let’s keep America great, and faithful to her promise of liberty and justice for all, born and unborn!

Prayer service at Supreme Court in D.C. on Jan. 22 to mark sad remembrance of Roe v. Wade - continued from Page 1

Friday, 2:30 p.m. - Once the marchers begin to reach the Supreme Court, the Gathering of the Silent No More Awareness Campaign (a joint project of Priests for Life and Anglicans for Life) will begin at the steps of the Supreme Court. Testimonies are given by mothers and fathers who have lost children to abortion.

The next day, Sat. Jan. 25th, the Walk for Life West Coast will be held in San Francisco, and Fr. Frank Pavone will be one of the main speakers from the stage.

“Birthday” approaches for Baby Chris

The wondrous journey begun by Baby Chris on March 25 will culminate next month, with his “birth” on Christmas Day.

Since the Feast of the Annunciation in March, Priests for Life and a coalition of dozens of national pro-life groups have been urging people to journey through the nine months of pregnancy on the app “My Baby Pregnancy Guide”, to learn about the development of the unborn child in the womb.

The video footage available on the app is much more powerful than ultrasound, and the app also equips users with resources for education, social media and prayer.

By seeing these children and knowing more about their development, people can see more clearly that these are our brothers and sisters in the womb and that they clearly deserve our protection.

It’s not too late to join the journey. Download the “My Baby Pregnancy Guide” from the app store for your smart phone, and go to BabyChris.org for more information.

Praise for our Work

I am part of the Pro-Life Movement in Northern Ireland. Our laws protect the life of both mother and child as equals however they are under grave threat... I follow Fr. Pavone’s Twitter avidly and keep up to date with the ongoing Pro-Life work in the United States. You inspire us to keep fighting for the protection of the unborn child here in Northern Ireland. - Catherine

So Planned Parenthood can no longer take advantage of our tax dollars, through the Title X program!

It's already the law, & a similar rule was upheld by the Supreme Court back in 1991.

Not a dime is taken away from healthcare; just from child-killing.

Yay!
