Help Equip a New Priest with Pro-Life Resources

Over the years, Priests for Life has built up an impressive library of pro-life books written by our own leaders and members of the Pastoral Team. Our books cover every aspect of the fight against abortion, including recovery after abortion, prolife strategy, and the pastoral involvement of the Church in shaping a culture of life.

Our publications also include many prayer and preaching resources, linking the liturgical life of the Church with her pro-life commitment.

We even have a book for teens!

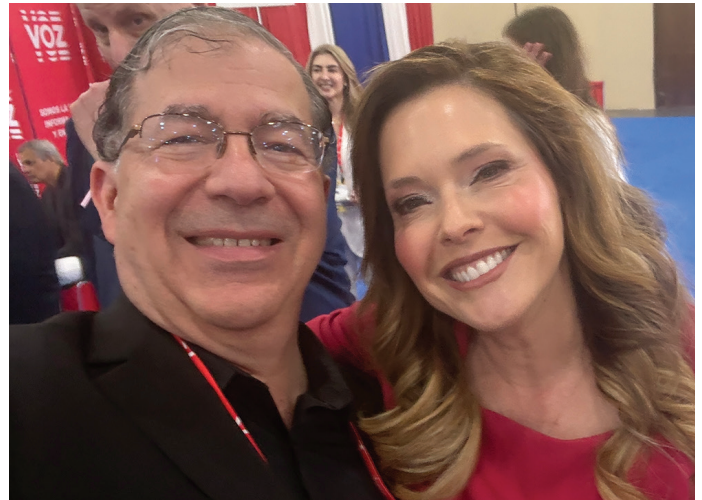

The members of our team who have authored these books include National Director Frank Pavone; Executive Director Janet Morana, who co-founded the Silent No More Awareness Campaign, which gives a voice to those healed from abortion, as well as Dr. Theresa and Kevin Burke, who founded the world's largest ministry for healing after abortion, Rachel's Vineyard. Many dioceses have made use of this retreat program.

Because we focus in particular on educating the clergy and equipping the Churches, we offer these books at no charge to seminary libraries nationwide.

Now we are beginning a new outreach to men who are newly ordained to the priesthood and the diaconate and we are asking you, our supporters, to be part of it.

Would you consider "adopting" one of these new priests or deacons? We are willing to supply him with a prolife toolkit and ongoing advice and encouragement to fight abortion through his ministry of prayer, preaching, and activating God's people. This may be a priest or deacon that you know, and to whom you can speak about these resources, or you can leave it to us to find a priest or deacon that we will help through your generosity.

Thank you in advance for helping us to equip these priests and deacons with the resources they need!

CPAC (Conservative Political Action Conference) is led by my friends Matt and Mercedes Schlapp (here in photo). The March conference in Dallas was a powerhouse of speakers and determination to make America great, prolife, and holy again!

Be a Missionary of the Gospel of Life!

The fight against abortion is not only a cause, a movement, or a political position. It is a spirituality. In other words, it flows from our faith, is shaped by our faith, and leads back to our faith, just as human life itself comes from God, belongs to God and goes back to God.

That's what we mean by the "sanctity" of human life!

We have learned the connections between the faith and our fight for the unborn from the best teachers God has raised up in recent decades: St. John Paul II, Mother Teresa, Mother Angelica, Cardinal John O'Connor, and others. Our National Director Frank Pavone had multiple personal interactions and conversations with all of them.

So Priests for Life has developed a training program in prolife spirituality. We utilize resources such as St. John Paul's encyclical The Gospel of Life. We identify particular virtues that need to mark those who defend the unborn against abortion. We create specific prayer resources for them to use.

Those who are trained in and strive to live this prolife spirituality are called Missionaries of the Gospel of Life. We communicate regularly with our missionaries, give them suggested activities, and create opportunities to connect with one another.

Hundreds of people across the United States and the world have already taken this training and live this spirituality.

Spreading the ProLife Message at CPAC

During the Conservative Political Action Conference (CPAC) in March in Dallas, ProLife Leader Frank Pavone was interviewed by multiple radio and television outlets. CPAC is fully supportive of the prolife movement and has warmly welcomed Priests for Life and other prolife groups for decades.

John Solomon of Just the News welcomed Fr. Frank onto Real America's Voice, saying – as just about everyone else does – “I’ll always call you ‘Father,’ and declaring him to be the “most cogent voice” in the fight against abortion today.

They went on to discuss late-term abortion, the need to call out the Democrat extremism on this point, and also the need to combat chemical abortion drugs, for which Democrat administrations have removed health and safety protections for women.

Supreme Court Case Could Impact Midterm Elections

In late March, the U.S. Supreme Court heard a case with major implications for the 2026 midterm elections.

In Watson v. Republican National Committee, the court will decide if states can count ballots that are mailed on time but received after Election Day. The Republican National Committee (RNC) argued that federal statutes require all ballots to be received by Election Day. Mississippi contends that Election Day is the deadline for mailing ballots.

Voting laws could be upended in some 15 states if the justices side with the RNC, as courtroom observers predicted they will.

During the Covid lockdown of 2020, Mississippi changed its election laws to allow mail-in ballots to be counted as long as they were postmarked by Election Day and received no later than five business days after.

RNC and the Mississippi Republican Party challenged the new law in 2024, contending that it violated a federal law that set the Tuesday after the first Monday in November as Election Day.

A district judge upheld the law but a three-judge panel of the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals later reversed the judge's opinion, ruling that federal law is clear that all mail-in ballots must be received by Election Day. Last fall, the Supreme Court agreed to hear the case.

Two veterans group joined the suit to defend the Mississippi law, saying that Congress did not intend ballots mailed in by overseas service members to be received by Election Day. In a friend-of-the-court brief, the Trump administration argued that the narrow exceptions for service members “do not define the rule.”

A decision in favor of the RNC could force more than a dozen states - including so-called blue states like California, New York, Maryland, Illinois and New Jersey – to rewrite their voting procedures.

A Prayer for Mothers

God of tender love and life,
You compared your love for humanity
To the love a mother has for her own child.

You are the Lord and Giver of Life,
And you knit each of us together
In our mother's womb.

You provide for the world
The example of Mary, your own mother,
Who said yes to life amid
her confusion and surprise.

We thank you, then, for our mothers.
Though human, they are also a reflection of you, Lord God.
They are your gift to us.

We pray for all mothers today.
May they realize the greatness of their vocation
And have the strength to live it without fear.
Forgive their sins, and keep their eyes raised up to you.

To those who still make
this earthly journey with us,
Give us the grace to love
them as we should;
And to those whom you
have called from this life,
Give a special place of honor in your Kingdom of endless life.

We pray through Christ our Lord. Amen.

At the annual Heartbeat International conference, I was pleased to spend time Marina Casini, who leads the prolife movement in Italy. I knew her father Carlo from our meetings at the Vatican's Pontifical Academy for Life. Marina is continuing his teachings and work and so will we.
