New York States passes law expanding abortion access until birth

NEW YORK POST

“The fact that this is no longer the case in New York shows how out of step this new law is both with the rest of America and with common sense,” said Rev. Frank Pavone of Priests for Life.

Hypocrisy, 'Homicide', and 'Horrors': New York's Brand New 'License to Kill' Viable Babies Sparks Intense Outrage

Janet Morana, co-founder of the Silent No More Awareness Campaign and executive director of @PriestsforLife tweeted:

"As a native New Yorker my heart is broken knowing precious babies can now be killed until birth for any reason. #abortion is nothing less than homicide and to expand its bloody reach on the anniversary of #RoeVWade is a disgrace. #prolife #WakeUpAmerica"

U.S. Senate fails to bring Born Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act to floor for a vote

The Washington Times

The Rev. Frank Pavone, national director of Priests for Life, vowed to make this vote a 2020 issue.

“For the Democrats, a newborn slated for extermination before birth is fair game even after birth. This is infanticide. The only thing Americans can do to protect these most vulnerable babies is to vote out of office those who fail to protect them,” Father Pavone said.

More states look to expand abortion

Fr. Frank Pavone, national director of Priests for Life, told CNSNews.com by email that “these [new] extreme laws, as I explain in my video, not only make it easier to get late-term abortions, but they also repeal very reasonable regulations which the courts permit even under Roe v Wade.”

Trump administration protects conscience rights

“President Trump has once again demonstrated today that he keeps his promises to the pro-life community and to America,” Father Frank Pavone, National Director of Priests for Life, said in a statement.

NEWS

"Because of the rhetoric out there, people can't address what is there, which is a sense of loss, and affects men and women and whether you went into it pro-choice or not," says Kevin Burke, a social worker and co-founder of Rachel's Vineyard, which runs weekend retreats for post-abortive men and women. "But you are not given permission to speak about any of that, so you can't process it."

US pro-lifers tour children's homes to highlight 'sanctity of life'

During the tour on Wednesday, Alveda King was joined by Michael Manhardt and another pro-life campaigner Janet Morana. Manhardt is the producer of the hit movie 'Unplanned' and Morana is the executive director of Priests For Life and co-founder of the Silent No More Awareness Campaign, which is the world's largest mobilisation of people who have lost children to abortion.

Indiana AG pledges to 'bring our babies home' after fetal remains discovery

"You cannot dehumanize the children in the womb without dehumanizing yourself," Priests for Life National Director Rev. Frank Pavone said during a Friday press conference for the Life Center in South Bend.

Pavone and other anti-abortion advocates expressed their outrage that Dr. Ulrich "George" Klopfer, who performed abortions in South Bend and elsewhere, wasn't stopped sooner.

Episcopal priest: Abortion is a blessing

Father Frank Pavone of Priests for Life tells OneNewsNow appointing her to the new position is an insult to people of faith, as Ragsdale has maintained throughout her career that abortion is a blessing and that its providers are "modern-day saints" and "heroes."

"When it is dressed up with the language and the vestments literally of religious belief, of scripture, of liturgy ... this is a particular affront to the gospel of Jesus Christ and all those who believe in it," Pavone contends.
