Pro-Life Essay Contest for Youth – Prizes to be Awarded!

Stand True, the youth outreach of Priests for Life is excited to announce our first annual pro-life essay contest! Students are invited to apply their writing skills to galvanize and educate other pro-life people across the country! There are three age groups and cash prizes for all groups. All entries should be between 500 and 800 words.

There are two topics:

High school / Junior High School Students: “Be My Vote For the Unborn”

The essay would talk about how even those who are not yet old enough to vote, or have just begun voting, can be a positive influence on other voters.

College Students: “The Duty To Vote Pro-life”

The essay would convey persuasive reasons why pro-life people need to vote and how the abortion issue affects their vote.
