

General Intercessions for the Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Cycle A

Celebrant: We are gathered to celebrate the mystery of our salvation in Jesus Christ. Let us ask God our Father to open for all the world this fountain of life and blessing.

Deacon/Lector:

For the Church, that it will joyfully proclaim the living Word of God to all people, we pray to the Lord...

That pastors may lead in faith and serve in love the flock entrusted to their care by Christ the Good Shepherd, we pray to the Lord...

That those who serve in public office and all those entrusted with the common good, that they may promote true justice and peace, we pray to the Lord...

That all who are pregnant and feel they cannot carry their child will find new strength from the presence of Christ who says, "Do not be afraid," we pray to the Lord...

For the aged who suffer from loneliness and infirmity, that we will sustain them by our love and compassion, we pray to the Lord...

For all who have died, may they come into the light of God's presence, we pray to the Lord...

Celebrant:

Father,
hear the prayers of your people.
Give us what you have inspired us to ask for in faith.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
