

General Intercessions for the Twenty-First Sunday of the Year, Cycle C

Celebrant:

We have responded to God's invitation to come to his Kingdom. We therefore pray with confidence.

Deacon/Lector:

That the Church, through the clear proclamation of the Gospel and through works of mercy, may always comfort those who are enduring trials of every kind, we pray to the Lord...

That government leaders around the world may make their decisions in light of the truth and justice that characterize God's Kingdom, we pray to the Lord...

That those who find their pregnancy a trial too difficult to bear may experience new strength from God and from the assistance of all of us, we pray to the Lord...

That students returning to school in these days may draw wisdom and knowledge from the Holy Spirit, and fulfill their duties diligently and safely, we pray to the Lord...

That the sick may experience the peace and joy that comes from trusting God and his Providence in their lives, we pray to the Lord...

That all who have died may be received into the everlasting banquet of God, we pray to the Lord...

Celebrant:

Father, we thank you
for making us members of your family.
As you hear our prayers,
May we extend your goodness
to all our brothers and sisters.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
