

Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year C

Celebrant: We have all received the mercies of the Lord. As we ask for His continued care, we do so with hearts filled with thanksgiving and praise.

Deacon/Lector:

That all who have experienced God's gift of salvation may render Him constant thanks and may spread the Faith, we pray to the Lord...

That we may always thank God for the gift of our life and the lives of our children, and work to defend the lives of those in danger, we pray to the Lord...

That those who help us teach our children may themselves be filled with wisdom, grace, and complete devotion to God's truth, we pray to the Lord...

For those who rely on our prayers through bonds of family or friendship, that God may fulfill their every need and protect them from evil, we pray to the Lord...

That as our nation celebrates Columbus Day, we may find new gratitude for this land, new patriotism, and new commitment to work for freedom, we pray to the Lord...

That the sick may be healed, the lonely comforted, and the dead welcomed to eternal life, we pray to the Lord...

Celebrant:

Father,
we thank you for hearing us.
As you grant our prayers,
Enable us to be faithful all our days
To our Lord Jesus Christ,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
One God forever and ever. Amen.
