

General Intercessions for the Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Cycle A

Celebrant: With trust in the One who cares for us much more than the birds in the sky, let us entrust all our needs into his hands.

Deacon/Lector:

That those entrusted with responsibilities in the Church and in civil government may prove trustworthy in the roles of service that God has given to them, we pray to the Lord...

That the Lord may increase vocations to the priesthood and religious life, and that those called may be generous, we pray to the Lord...

That mothers who are tempted to abort the child of their womb may be freed from anxiety and strengthened in their special calling to nurture life, we pray to the Lord...

That all those who have anxiety about meeting the basic demands of life may find the consoling grace of the Lord and the generous assistance of his people, we pray to the Lord...

That the poor, the disadvantaged, the unemployed, and the forgotten may experience the power of God's Spirit and the help of his people, we pray to the Lord...

That the sick may be healed according to God's will, and the deceased purified and welcomed into eternal joy, we pray to the Lord...

Celebrant:

Father,
As we present our needs to you,
We ask you to increase our faith,
Free us from anxiety,
And give us the constant assurance of your presence
And your grace.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
