

“I Created You”

My beloved child

As Your Father of Heaven and Earth

By My design determine

All of creation’s worth!

Everything I craft

With the power of My hand

Has purpose for existence

And it is the perfect plan!

The mountains and the seas

The sky so vast and blue

Are gifts that were created

Because of great love for you!

And I create each living thing

Despite what some assume

Knitting every human life

Within a mother’s womb!

For I design all wondrous things

And what I say is True

What a GLORIOUS day it truly was

When I gave life to you!!!
